History Bowl teams from Yonkers Middle/High School had one varsity (A) and two junior varsity (B and C) teams compete. Team A placed second overall. The top rankings qualify the students for the education of young children accredita-

sixth District Councilman and Republican Minority Leader John Larkin was easily defeated Tuesday, receiving 91 percent of the vote and defeating incumbent Councilman Dennis Shepherd by a 56-43 percent margin, according to the Westchester County Board of Elections. McLaughlin will join with three council Republican – Mike Breen, John Larkin and Dennis Shepherd – to form a four-member Republican majority on the council.

Larkin Wins Re-election; Shepherd Narrowly Ahead

Greyston Center Emphasizes Reading, Science and Math

Schools Advance to National History Bowl Competition

Greyston rising photographer Donna Davis with actor-Director Eric Stoltz outside her Yonkers home.

By Dan Murphy

Yonkers Rising photographer Donna Davis has had an interesting two weeks after her home at Gold Street was selected for a film location for a new NBC television series titled “Believes.” Davis was contacted by film scouts for the show, which centers on a 10-year-old girl, Bo (actress Johnny Sequoyah), who has the gift of controlling nature, predicting the future, location and timelines.

Television Show ‘Believes’ In Filming in Yonkers

Rising Photographer Donna Davis with actor-Director Eric Stoltz outside her Yonkers home.

By Dan Murphy

Yonkers Rising photographer Donna Davis has had an interesting two weeks after her home at Gold Street was selected for a film location for a new NBC television series titled “Believes.” Davis was contacted by film scouts for the show, which centers on a 10-year-old girl, Bo (actress Johnny Sequoyah), who has the gift of controlling nature, predicting the future, location and timelines.

The PEARLS Hawthorne School History Bowl Team with teacher Christina Bellusci.

PEARLS Hawthorne School History Bowl Team with teacher-coach Lumi Selimaj.

The Yonkers Middle/High School History Bowl Team with teacher-coach Lumi Selimaj.

The Yonkers Middle/High School History Bowl Team with teacher-coach Lumi Selimaj.

By Dan Murphy

Yonkers Rising photographer Donna Davis has had an interesting two weeks after her home at Gold Street was selected for a film location for a new NBC television series titled “Believes.” Davis was contacted by film scouts for the show, which centers on a 10-year-old girl, Bo (actress Johnny Sequoyah), who has the gift of controlling nature, predicting the future, location and timelines.

garten. The center has been providing quality services to be successful once they move on to kindergarten (B and C) teams compete. Team A placed second overall. The top rankings qualify the students for the education of young children accredita-

sixth District Councilman and Republican Minority Leader John Larkin was easily defeated Tuesday, receiving 91 percent of the vote and defeating incumbent Councilman Dennis Shepherd by a 56-43 percent margin, according to the Westchester County Board of Elections. McLaughlin will join with three council Republican – Mike Breen, John Larkin and Dennis Shepherd – to form a four-member Republican majority on the council.

Larkin Wins Re-election; Shepherd Narrowly Ahead

Greyston Center Emphasizes Reading, Science and Math

Schools Advance to National History Bowl Competition

Greyston rising photographer Donna Davis with actor-Director Eric Stoltz outside her Yonkers home.

By Dan Murphy

Yonkers Rising photographer Donna Davis has had an interesting two weeks after her home at Gold Street was selected for a film location for a new NBC television series titled “Believes.” Davis was contacted by film scouts for the show, which centers on a 10-year-old girl, Bo (actress Johnny Sequoyah), who has the gift of controlling nature, predicting the future, location and timelines.

Television Show ‘Believes’ In Filming in Yonkers

Rising Photographer Donna Davis with actor-Director Eric Stoltz outside her Yonkers home.

By Dan Murphy

Yonkers Rising photographer Donna Davis has had an interesting two weeks after her home at Gold Street was selected for a film location for a new NBC television series titled “Believes.” Davis was contacted by film scouts for the show, which centers on a 10-year-old girl, Bo (actress Johnny Sequoyah), who has the gift of controlling nature, predicting the future, location and timelines.

The PEARLS Hawthorne School History Bowl Team with teacher Christina Bellusci.

PEARLS Hawthorne School History Bowl Team with teacher-coach Lumi Selimaj.

The Yonkers Middle/High School History Bowl Team with teacher-coach Lumi Selimaj.
By Dan Murphy

Hudson Valley Restaurant Week, the premiere dining event of the region, returned Nov. 4 and continues through Nov. 17. Featuring more than 150 restaurants across seven counties, it is one of the largest Restaurant Week events in the country.

In Yonkers, seven restaurants are participating in the two-week-long promotion, offering three-course, prix-fixe dinners at $29.95 and lunches at $20.95 (plus beverage, tax and tip).

X2O Xconomists on the Hudson and DuPont Restaurant – both on the riverfront in downtown Yonkers, Texas de Brazil at Ridge Hill, Tribonacci Ristorante at 356 Kimball Ave., and Zoppa at 39 Main St. – are all offering Restaurant Week dinners and lunches worthy of your visit. Empire City Casino’s two new award-winning restaurants – pinch American Grill and Dan Rooney’s Sports Bar – are first-time participants in Hudson Valley Restaurant Week.

The two new restaurants encompass a large portion of the additional 60,000-square-foot, $50 million expansion recently completed at Empire City Casino. The innovative casual grill as a collaboration between developer Mark Advenit, the creator of Las Vegas’ New York-NY, and Empire City Casino, the culinary consulting arm of Alain Ducasse Enterprises.

Dan Rooney’s Sports Bar is a fun take on the classic sports pub. pinch American Grill features an open kitchen, bar top and pastry counter in a vintage diner-style environment. The beer program unabashedly serves as a man attraction with an on-site certified beer cicerone and 100 New York craft beers on tap, large format beers, and table-side taps allowing diners to “pour your own” beer.

The newly-opened pinch restaurant at Empire City Casino.

Not to be outdone by the bar, the pinch menu, created by Chef Fabienne Eymard (Taillevent in Paris, Caprice in Switzerland, Benoit in New York), offers a mix of updated American and international classics.

Inspired by the original Dan Rooney’s Caffe and Cigar built and operated in the early 1990s in Pittsburgh by the family of Tom Rooney, the current owner and operator of Empire City Casino, the new Dan Rooney’s Sports Bar is warm, inviting and casual, featuring dual flame rotisseries, private “snugs” for intimate seating, two fireplaces, and plenty of live musical entertainment. Both the lunch and dinner Restaurant Week menus for Dan Rooney’s feature the burger that received acclaim from celebrity chefs as the winner of the Burger Battle at the first Greenwich Food & Wine Festival.

Empire City Casino, the new Dan Rooney’s Sports Pub and the Cigar Bar built and operated in the early 1990s in Pittsburgh by the family of Tom Rooney, the current owner and operator of Empire City Casino, the new Dan Rooney’s Sports Bar is warm, inviting and casual, featuring dual flame rotisseries, private “snugs” for intimate seating, two fireplaces, and plenty of live musical entertainment. Both the lunch and dinner Restaurant Week menus for Dan Rooney’s feature the burger that received acclaim from celebrity chefs as the winner of the Burger Battle at the first Greenwich Food & Wine Festival.

Donna Davis agreed to allow filming in her home, which required the removal of most of her furniture and belongings and the trans-
By Eric W. Schoen

Our captain has let America down.

I would bet most of the television, radio and print journalists critical of Obamacare don’t have health care plans than Americans do. To be honest, I have good health care coverage. According to the Commonwealth Conserva- tive Demo- crats, I am part of the group that Americans without health insurance would finally be able to get coverage. We all know whose lives and finances have been ruined by poor health and out-of-control health care costs.

When there were glitches with the Obam- care (as the Affordable Health Care Act for America as it is officially known) website, I encouraged people to relax. There are always problems when new programs are rolled out. It’s always sunny in the desert of the sun and the moon.

However, as every day goes by I am further convinced. My experience has the American people down.

Throughout the CDBG year/contract, the administration had close to four years to work the kinks out. All the apol- ogy in the world from the president, health and human services secretary and everyone else involved is not acceptable. Millions of dollars have been spent and since there was no system available beyond crany sauce and giblet gravy.

Program Participants

Groundwork has been a CDBG grant recipient for 10 years, during which time it has received funding for the Science Barge acquisition, Groundwork USA, a national non-profit organization. In the summer of 2012, Groundwork USA acquired 22 Main St., Yonkers, where it shares space with the Science Barge. It provides the trusts with needed services to ensure each trust is an active, viable and consistent with the approved grant.

Grant Summary

In Year 38 of the CDBG program (Feb. 1, 2012, to June 30, 2013), Groundwork received a $25,000 grant to support the Science Barge acquisition. The project proposal had a total budget of $75,000. The budget included $25,000 for program supplies and “neighborhood giving,” and $22,500 for the Science Barge acquisition. Groundwork had $25,000 in瓜果 with discussions on in the economy, the grant was revised and $600 was budgeted for garden boxes for the Science Barge, and $24,400 was budgeted for rental of the Science Barge.

Site Visit

On Sept. 18, 2012, the city’s Department of Planning and Development, Community Development Block Fund. We found that Groundwork has adequate financial controls in place to ensure that grant funds are utilized appropriately and were used in a manner that is consistent with the approved grant.

Each funding award is monitored through the Board of Contract and Supply. Each year, funding is directed to the appropriate project, organization or entity. A grant recipient is eligible to receive funding for a project, organization or entity. A grant recipient is required to receive funding for a project, organization or entity.

Each CDBG applicant must provide a re- quest for funding. This request for funding includes a statement of need; proposed budget; how the funds will be used; description of the project; and project timeline.

The commission for the Department of Planning and Development conducts a review of each CDBG program. Through the CDBG year, the commission reviews each CDBG program. We also find that Groundwork has appropriate internal controls and a statement of need, and Groundwork had submitted three OPRs which stated that, through October 2012, it had contact with 4,416 participants. Of these, 2,031 youth and 54 young people.

We reviewed a sample of participant sign- ups for the Science Barge during the year. Our review showed that Groundwork’s primary focus is to provide the targeted area with “safe, green, open space.

Groundwork Payments

Groundwork’s main office is located at 22 Main St., Yonkers. It provides the trusts with the Science Barge payments under the grant.

There was proper documentation submitted for the City of Yonkers to award some funds. We also found that Groundwork had appropriate internal controls and a statement of need, and Groundwork had submitted three OPRs which stated that, through October 2012, it had contact with 4,416 participants. Of these, 2,031 youth and 54 young people.

We reviewed a sample of participant sign- ups for the Science Barge during the year. Our review showed that Groundwork’s primary focus is to provide the targeted area with “safe, green, open space.

Internal Controls

Groundwork had been a CDBG grant recipient for 10 years, during which time it has received funding for the Science Barge acquisition. Groundwork has adequate financial controls in place to ensure that grant funds are utilized appropriately and were used in a manner that is consistent with the approved grant.

We reviewed a sample of participant sign-up forms for the Science Barge during the year. The commission for the Department of Planning and Development had selected forms to be reviewed.

We found that Groundwork had appropriate internal controls and consistent with the approved con- tracts. These controls ensured that grant funds were utilized appropriately and were used in a manner that is consistent with the approved grant.

Conclusions

Groundwork has been a CDBG grant recipient for 10 years, during which time it has received funding for the Science Barge acquisition. Groundwork has adequate financial controls in place to ensure that grant funds are utilized appropriately and were used in a manner that is consistent with the approved grant.

Grant Summary

In Year 38 of the CDBG program (Feb. 1, 2012, to June 30, 2013), Groundwork received a $25,000 grant to support the Science Barge acquisition. The project proposal had a total budget of $75,000. The budget included $25,000 for program supplies and “neighborhood giving,” and $22,500 for the Science Barge acquisition. Groundwork had $25,000 in瓜果 with discussions on in the economy, the grant was revised and $600 was budgeted for garden boxes for the Science Barge, and $24,400 was budgeted for rental of the Science Barge.

Site Visit

On Sept. 18, 2012, the city’s Department of Planning and Development, Community Development Block Fund. We found that Groundwork has adequate financial controls in place to ensure that grant funds are utilized appropriately and were used in a manner that is consistent with the approved grant.
Stew Leonard’s: Menorah-Lighting Ceremony

Stew Leonard’s stores invite the Westchester community to celebrate Hanukkah 2013 with a Menorah-lighting ceremony on Sunday, November 24th at 6:30 p.m. at each Stew Leonard’s store location. Each year, this special event is held to commemorate each night of Hanukkah — plus the eternal, sacred, lamp that can be used to light the other eight. The Menorah-Lighting ceremony is open to the public; homemade and energized foods are served at the Croton Point Nature Center. The ceremony features a Menorah Lighting with a special guest and ends with the lighting of a 21-foot menorah. At the Croton Point event, the caucasus-Yonkers chapter will join local health care providers to provide valuable information on important health care topics ranging from the Affordable Care Act to preventive health care.

Police Council to Meet

The Third Precinct Police Community Council will hold its next regular monthly meeting Tuesday, Nov. 19 at 7:30 p.m. at the Chesnut Community Center, 435 Riverdale Ave. in Yonkers. All police officers in the community are welcome. For more information, call 914-641-7202.

Pre-Register for 2014 GOLF E-Z Reserve

Golfers who participated in the Golf Westchester E-Z Reserve Program in 2013 can pre-register for next season’s program, in addition all county golf courses through Saturday, Nov. 30. To pre-register for 2014 E-Z Reserve, call 914-461-3434 or visit westchestergolf课程.com/openhouse. In addition to participating in pre-registration, members will have access to the golf course through Dec. 29, giving the campus-wide community 33 days to practice for the upcoming Spring semester. The fair and forum is sponsored by State Senator Jack Reed, Senator Andrew Stewart-Cousins, Health Care Emblem, Hali- men Health Insurance, Westchester County Board of Legislators and the Community Foundation of Westchester. For more information, call 914-967-8720.

Filipino Women’s Empowerment Center

The Fair and forum is an opportunity for uninsured Yonkers families to find out about health insurance and information on important health care topics ranging from the Affordable Care Act to preventive health care.

To learn more about the Westchester County Board of Legislators, call 914-375-4700.

Pre-Register for 2014 GOLF E-Z Reserve

Golfers who participated in the Golf Westchester E-Z Reserve Program in 2013 can pre-register for next season’s program, in addition all county golf courses through Saturday, Nov. 30. To pre-register for 2014 E-Z Reserve, call 914-461-3434 or visit westchestergolf课程.com/openhouse. In addition to participating in pre-registration, members will have access to the golf course through Dec. 29, giving the campus-wide community 33 days to practice for the upcoming Spring semester. The fair and forum is sponsored by State Senator Jack Reed, Senator Andrew Stewart-Cousins, Health Care Emblem, Hali- men Health Insurance, Westchester County Board of Legislators and the Community Foundation of Westchester. For more information, call 914-967-8720.

Filipino Women’s Empowerment Center

The fair and forum is an opportunity for uninsured Yonkers families to find out about health insurance and information on important health care topics ranging from the Affordable Care Act to preventive health care.

To learn more about the Westchester County Board of Legislators, call 914-375-4700.

Pre-Register for 2014 GOLF E-Z Reserve

Golfers who participated in the Golf Westchester E-Z Reserve Program in 2013 can pre-register for next season’s program, in addition all county golf courses through Saturday, Nov. 30. To pre-register for 2014 E-Z Reserve, call 914-461-3434 or visit westchestergolf课程.com/openhouse. In addition to participating in pre-registration, members will have access to the golf course through Dec. 29, giving the campus-wide community 33 days to practice for the upcoming Spring semester. The fair and forum is sponsored by State Senator Jack Reed, Senator Andrew Stewart-Cousins, Health Care Emblem, Hali- men Health Insurance, Westchester County Board of Legislators and the Community Foundation of Westchester. For more information, call 914-967-8720.

Filipino Women’s Empowerment Center

The fair and forum is an opportunity for uninsured Yonkers families to find out about health insurance and information on important health care topics ranging from the Affordable Care Act to preventive health care.

To learn more about the Westchester County Board of Legislators, call 914-375-4700.

Pre-Register for 2014 GOLF E-Z Reserve

Golfers who participated in the Golf Westchester E-Z Reserve Program in 2013 can pre-register for next season’s program, in addition all county golf courses through Saturday, Nov. 30. To pre-register for 2014 E-Z Reserve, call 914-461-3434 or visit westchestergolf课程.com/openhouse. In addition to participating in pre-registration, members will have access to the golf course through Dec. 29, giving the campus-wide community 33 days to practice for the upcoming Spring semester. The fair and forum is sponsored by State Senator Jack Reed, Senator Andrew Stewart-Cousins, Health Care Emblem, Hali- men Health Insurance, Westchester County Board of Legislators and the Community Foundation of Westchester. For more information, call 914-967-8720.
Historical Society to Address

“How Dutch Brought us Santa”

In collaboration with the New York Council for the Humanities, the Yonkers Historical Society will present the lecture “Joyful Tradition: How the Dutch Brought Us Santa, Peperkoek and Toppers” by Peter Rose on Saturday, Nov. 17 at 1 p.m. at the Greater Will Library, 150 Central Park Ave., Yonkers. This lecture is free and open to the general public. This event is made possible through the Speakers in the Humanities program with the support of the National Endowment for the Humanities.

In this slide-accompanied lecture, author, historian and food historian Peter Rose delves into the early history of the life of Saint Nicolas, explains the various changes in his veneration, and relates how he was brought to America by the Dutch in the 17th century and transformed into Santa in the 19th century. The talk will encompass each subject as Literature; religion; the fine arts; and Dutch food ways to describe the extraordinary story of Saint Nicolas heritage, which has had a lasting impact on American culture.

Remembering Betty Pickover

A special memorial tribute for longtime Yonkers resident Betty Pickover, who passed away Sept. 20, will take place Friday, Nov. 8 at 6 p.m. at the First Presbyterian Church, 573 Broadway, Yonkers.

Pickover was a dedicated community activist involved in numerous organizations, and took great pride in her involvement as an active Democrat in Westchester and New York State. She lived with them since she was a baby and was brought up for adoption.

On Sept. 20, will take place Friday, Nov. 8 at 6 p.m. at the Grinton Will Library, 150 Central Park Ave., Yonkers.

Sweet Serafina Needs a Home

The Yonkers Animal Shelter has many pets available now for adoption at the Yonkers Animal Shelter.

In this slide-accompanied lecture, author, historian and food historian Peter Rose delves into the early history of the life of Saint Nicolas, explains the various changes in his veneration, and relates how he was brought to America by the Dutch in the 17th century and transformed into Santa in the 19th century. The talk will encompass each subject as Literature; religion; the fine arts; and Dutch food ways to describe the extraordinary story of Saint Nicolas heritage, which has had a lasting impact on American culture.

A sharing of memories and a musical interlude, as well as a musical performance by the Yonkers Community Council will follow the lecture.

The Yonkers Animal Shelter has many pets available now for adoption at the Yonkers Animal Shelter.

In this slide-accompanied lecture, author, historian and food historian Peter Rose delves into the early history of the life of Saint Nicolas, explains the various changes in his veneration, and relates how he was brought to America by the Dutch in the 17th century and transformed into Santa in the 19th century. The talk will encompass each subject as Literature; religion; the fine arts; and Dutch food ways to describe the extraordinary story of Saint Nicolas heritage, which has had a lasting impact on American culture.

A sharing of memories and a musical interlude, as well as a musical performance by the Yonkers Community Council will follow the lecture.

The Yonkers Animal Shelter has many pets available now for adoption at the Yonkers Animal Shelter.

In this slide-accompanied lecture, author, historian and food historian Peter Rose delves into the early history of the life of Saint Nicolas, explains the various changes in his veneration, and relates how he was brought to America by the Dutch in the 17th century and transformed into Santa in the 19th century. The talk will encompass each subject as Literature; religion; the fine arts; and Dutch food ways to describe the extraordinary story of Saint Nicolas heritage, which has had a lasting impact on American culture.

A sharing of memories and a musical interlude, as well as a musical performance by the Yonkers Community Council will follow the lecture.

The Yonkers Animal Shelter has many pets available now for adoption at the Yonkers Animal Shelter.

In this slide-accompanied lecture, author, historian and food historian Peter Rose delves into the early history of the life of Saint Nicolas, explains the various changes in his veneration, and relates how he was brought to America by the Dutch in the 17th century and transformed into Santa in the 19th century. The talk will encompass each subject as Literature; religion; the fine arts; and Dutch food ways to describe the extraordinary story of Saint Nicolas heritage, which has had a lasting impact on American culture.
Social Security Serves Those Who’ve Served

Three Physicians at Phelps Hospital Named ‘Doctors of Distinction’

BY MICHAEL LAMAGNA

The medical world is always looking to find ways to improve health care delivery. Some of the most innovative are coming from those who served and risked their lives on the line for our freedoms. Members of information Social Security has available for our wounded veterans, at www.socialsecurity.gov/woundedwarriors. The webinar, factsheet and pertinent links will brief you on everything you need to know – and for you to help spread the word – about the many benefits and wealth of information available in our digital library at www.socialsecurity.gov.

The webinar is available in our digital library at www.socialsecurity.gov. If you prefer a printed copy of the factsheet, you can download it through the following links:

- 1.800.772.1213
- www.socialsecurity.gov/hotlines

The moral of the story is: Sign up early. America is calling for further delay of one year in order to obtain health insurance, which may be interesting to watch and see what will happen if the technical problems persist.

For more information, visit the Cochran School of Nursing, St. John’s Riverview, or call us at 914-964-4606 or 800-555-1213.

Social Security Services for Younger Americans: What’s New for 2014

Social Security process.

On the same webpage, you’ll also find links to useful Veterans Affairs and Department of Defense topics unique to wounded service members. The webinar, factsheet and pertinent links will brief you on everything you need to know – and for you to help spread the word – about the many benefits and wealth of information available for our wounded veterans.
Documents obtained from the Tax Department show Rotanelli’s tax delinquency.

By Dan Murphy

As I watched the hundreds of political television ads about the past few weeks, one notice was in a race for New Jersey State Senate. One of the candidates, Susan Addicott, Schneider, had an ad against her that highlighted that she “has a business record of liens, unpaid taxes and violations” and that she should be disqualified from serving in the NJ Senate.

City Council President candidate Michael Rotanelli lost his bid Tuesday to Lain McDougle for a variety of reasons; one issue that came out in the campaign was the fact that Rotanelli did not pay taxes on property he owns for his business, Transit Auto Towing and Body Shop.

When asked, Rotanelli said the matter “was taken care of.” (There were also rumors that came out late in the campaign was the fact McLaughlin for a variety of reasons; one issue that came out in the campaign was the fact that Rotanelli did not pay taxes on property he owns for his business, Transit Auto Towing and Body Shop.

Documents obtained from the Tax Department show Rotanelli’s tax delinquency.

Council President Chuck Lawrissick sent out an email endorsement of Rotanelli before the election, which stated: “He (Rotanelli) has a record of paying his New York taxes in full, and is behind on his payment plan with the city to pay his back taxes, where he agreed to pay $2,604.04 every month. How- ever, according to tax records Rotanelli made four payments from December 2012 to March 2013, and has not made a payment since.”

Rotanelli says he paid his taxes in full, and is behind on his payment plan with the city to pay his back taxes, where he agreed to pay $2,604.04 every month. However, according to tax records Rotanelli made four payments from December 2012 to March 2013, and has not made a payment since.

When asked, Rotanelli said the matter “was taken care of.” (There were also rumors that came out late in the campaign was the fact that Rotanelli did not pay taxes on property he owns for his business, Transit Auto Towing and Body Shop.

Documents obtained from the Tax Department show Rotanelli’s tax delinquency.

When asked, Rotanelli said the matter “was taken care of.” (There were also rumors that came out late in the campaign was the fact that Rotanelli did not pay taxes on property he owns for his business, Transit Auto Towing and Body Shop.

Documents obtained from the Tax Department show Rotanelli’s tax delinquency.

When asked, Rotanelli said the matter “was taken care of.” (There were also rumors that came out late in the campaign was the fact that Rotanelli did not pay taxes on property he owns for his business, Transit Auto Towing and Body Shop.

Documents obtained from the Tax Department show Rotanelli’s tax delinquency.

When asked, Rotanelli said the matter “was taken care of.” (There were also rumors that came out late in the campaign was the fact that Rotanelli did not pay taxes on property he owns for his business, Transit Auto Towing and Body Shop.

In 2012, a postcard mentioned that Rotanelli’s tax delinquency in full taxes, the records show that he has not paid taxes in full, and is behind on his payment plan.

Documents obtained from the Tax Department show Rotanelli’s tax delinquency.

When asked, Rotanelli said the matter “was taken care of.” (There were also rumors that came out late in the campaign was the fact that Rotanelli did not pay taxes on property he owns for his business, Transit Auto Towing and Body Shop.

Documents obtained from the Tax Department show Rotanelli’s tax delinquency.

When asked, Rotanelli said the matter “was taken care of.” (There were also rumors that came out late in the campaign was the fact that Rotanelli did not pay taxes on property he owns for his business, Transit Auto Towing and Body Shop.

Documents obtained from the Tax Department show Rotanelli’s tax delinquency.

When asked, Rotanelli said the matter “was taken care of.” (There were also rumors that came out late in the campaign was the fact that Rotanelli did not pay taxes on property he owns for his business, Transit Auto Towing and Body Shop.

Documents obtained from the Tax Department show Rotanelli’s tax delinquency.

When asked, Rotanelli said the matter “was taken care of.” (There were also rumors that came out late in the campaign was the fact that Rotanelli did not pay taxes on property he owns for his business, Transit Auto Towing and Body Shop.

Documents obtained from the Tax Department show Rotanelli’s tax delinquency.

When asked, Rotanelli said the matter “was taken care of.” (There were also rumors that came out late in the campaign was the fact that Rotanelli did not pay taxes on property he owns for his business, Transit Auto Towing and Body Shop.

Documents obtained from the Tax Department show Rotanelli’s tax delinquency.

When asked, Rotanelli said the matter “was taken care of.” (There were also rumors that came out late in the campaign was the fact that Rotanelli did not pay taxes on property he owns for his business, Transit Auto Towing and Body Shop.

Documents obtained from the Tax Department show Rotanelli’s tax delinquency.

When asked, Rotanelli said the matter “was taken care of.” (There were also rumors that came out late in the campaign was the fact that Rotanelli did not pay taxes on property he owns for his business, Transit Auto Towing and Body Shop.

Documents obtained from the Tax Department show Rotanelli’s tax delinquency.

When asked, Rotanelli said the matter “was taken care of.” (There were also rumors that came out late in the campaign was the fact that Rotanelli did not pay taxes on property he owns for his business, Transit Auto Towing and Body Shop.

Documents obtained from the Tax Department show Rotanelli’s tax delinquency.

When asked, Rotanelli said the matter “was taken care of.” (There were also rumors that came out late in the campaign was the fact that Rotanelli did not pay taxes on property he owns for his business, Transit Auto Towing and Body Shop.

Documents obtained from the Tax Department show Rotanelli’s tax delinquency.

When asked, Rotanelli said the matter “was taken care of.” (There were also rumors that came out late in the campaign was the fact that Rotanelli did not pay taxes on property he owns for his business, Transit Auto Towing and Body Shop.

Documents obtained from the Tax Department show Rotanelli’s tax delinquency.

When asked, Rotanelli said the matter “was taken care of.” (There were also rumors that came out late in the campaign was the fact that Rotanelli did not pay taxes on property he owns for his business, Transit Auto Towing and Body Shop.

Documents obtained from the Tax Department show Rotanelli’s tax delinquency.

When asked, Rotanelli said the matter “was taken care of.” (There were also rumors that came out late in the campaign was the fact that Rotanelli did not pay taxes on property he owns for his business, Transit Auto Towing and Body Shop.

Documents obtained from the Tax Department show Rotanelli’s tax delinquency.

When asked, Rotanelli said the matter “was taken care of.” (There were also rumors that came out late in the campaign was the fact that Rotanelli did not pay taxes on property he owns for his business, Transit Auto Towing and Body Shop.

Documents obtained from the Tax Department show Rotanelli’s tax delinquency.

When asked, Rotanelli said the matter “was taken care of.” (There were also rumors that came out late in the campaign was the fact that Rotanelli did not pay taxes on property he owns for his business, Transit Auto Towing and Body Shop.

Documents obtained from the Tax Department show Rotanelli’s tax delinquency.

When asked, Rotanelli said the matter “was taken care of.” (There were also rumors that came out late in the campaign was the fact that Rotanelli did not pay taxes on property he owns for his business, Transit Auto Towing and Body Shop.

Documents obtained from the Tax Department show Rotanelli’s tax delinquency.

When asked, Rotanelli said the matter “was taken care of.” (There were also rumors that came out late in the campaign was the fact that Rotanelli did not pay taxes on property he owns for his business, Transit Auto Towing and Body Shop.
Abbott House Celebrates 50 Years With Dignity of Family Life Awards

Abbott House, the New York-based nonprofit serving children, families and the developmentally disabled in special event, “The Dignity of Family Life Award Dinner” and 50th anniversary gala. Oct. 24 at the Marina Del Rey in Tarrytown. With more than 200 attendees, the event raised $162,000 for Abbott House’s programs and services.

Television journalist Meredith Vieira served as emcee for the evening. The gala celebration honored Al Roker of NBC News and Deborah Roberts of ABC News, and their families with the inaugural “The Dignity of Family Life Award.” This award is presented to individuals who personify the values and their families with the inaugural “The Dignity of Family Life Award.” This award is presented to individuals who personify the values of Family Life and exemplifies Family Life Award” at Abbott House, Westchester County, NY October, 29, 1965.” In it, King professed to the Westchester Children’s Museums of “Museums without Walls” program, ma-

The event was also the occasion of the launching of a major gift campaign, called Fifty Forward, Celebrating the Past, Securing the Future. Announced by Abbott House Board of Directors Chairman Gregory Mooney, the goal of the campaign is $1 million. It began Nov. 1 (the actual date of incorporation 50 years ago) and runs for one year.

“The evening was an historic one for Ab-

Here’s how: Chairman of the Board of Directors of Abbott House Gregory Mooney, Al Roker, Meredith Vieira, and President and CEO of Abbott House James Kaufman, LSCW-R.

“The gala celebration honored Al Roker of

Continuing its work with families, Greystone Children’s Center provides a wide variety of resources to support parents in their personal growth and development. All parents are invited to workshops about a variety of topics, including child development, parenting skills, stress management, and family concerns. Parents are encouraged to participate in the regularly-scheduled parenting and are required to attend twice-yearly parent conferences, where they review the goals developed for their child and discuss the child’s progress with Greystone Children’s Center staff. For more information, call 914-576-7280.

Greystone Children’s Center
Continued from Page 1

support parents in their personal growth and de-

Five others were presented with Friend of Abbott House awards for their longstanding contribution of time, talent, and treasure to the people served. These included Susan Cutajar, Barbara Kammerer, Dr. Robert Rawdin, Judy Rawdin, David Wade, and Diane Wade.

The event was also the occasion of the launching of a major gift campaign, called Fifty Forward, Celebrating the Past, Securing the Future. Announced by Abbott House Board of Directors Chairman Gregory Mooney, the goal of the campaign is $1 million. It began Nov. 1 (the actual date of incorporation 50 years ago) and runs for one year.

“The evening was an historic one for Ab-

Here’s how: Chairman of the Board of Directors of Abbott House Gregory Mooney, Al Roker, Meredith Vieira, and President and CEO of Abbott House James Kaufman, LSCW-R.

“The gala celebration honored Al Roker of

Continuing its work with families, Greystone Children’s Center provides a wide variety of resources to support parents in their personal growth and development. All parents are invited to workshops about a variety of topics, including child development, parenting skills, stress management, and family concerns. Parents are encouraged to participate in the regularly-scheduled parenting and are required to attend twice-yearly parent conferences, where they review the goals developed for their child and discuss the child’s progress with Greystone Children’s Center staff. For more information, call 914-576-7280.

Greystone Children’s Center
Continued from Page 1

support parents in their personal growth and de-

Five others were presented with Friend of Abbott House awards for their longstanding contribution of time, talent, and treasure to the people served. These included Susan Cutajar, Barbara Kammerer, Dr. Robert Rawdin, Judy Rawdin, David Wade, and Diane Wade.

The event was also the occasion of the launching of a major gift campaign, called Fifty Forward, Celebrating the Past, Securing the Future. Announced by Abbott House Board of Directors Chairman Gregory Mooney, the goal of the campaign is $1 million. It began Nov. 1 (the actual date of incorporation 50 years ago) and runs for one year.

“The evening was an historic one for Ab-

Here’s how: Chairman of the Board of Directors of Abbott House Gregory Mooney, Al Roker, Meredith Vieira, and President and CEO of Abbott House James Kaufman, LSCW-R.

“The gala celebration honored Al Roker of

Continuing its work with families, Greystone Children’s Center provides a wide variety of resources to support parents in their personal growth and development. All parents are invited to workshops about a variety of topics, including child development, parenting skills, stress management, and family concerns. Parents are encouraged to participate in the regularly-scheduled parenting and are required to attend twice-yearly parent conferences, where they review the goals developed for their child and discuss the child’s progress with Greystone Children’s Center staff. For more information, call 914-576-7280.

Greystone Children’s Center
Continued from Page 1

support parents in their personal growth and de-

Five others were presented with Friend of Abbott House awards for their longstanding contribution of time, talent, and treasure to the people served. These included Susan Cutajar, Barbara Kammerer, Dr. Robert Rawdin, Judy Rawdin, David Wade, and Diane Wade.

The event was also the occasion of the launching of a major gift campaign, called Fifty Forward, Celebrating the Past, Securing the Future. Announced by Abbott House Board of Directors Chairman Gregory Mooney, the goal of the campaign is $1 million. It began Nov. 1 (the actual date of incorporation 50 years ago) and runs for one year.

“The evening was an historic one for Ab-

Here’s how: Chairman of the Board of Directors of Abbott House Gregory Mooney, Al Roker, Meredith Vieira, and President and CEO of Abbott House James Kaufman, LSCW-R.

“The gala celebration honored Al Roker of

Continuing its work with families, Greystone Children’s Center provides a wide variety of resources to support parents in their personal growth and development. All parents are invited to workshops about a variety of topics, including child development, parenting skills, stress management, and family concerns. Parents are encouraged to participate in the regularly-scheduled parenting and are required to attend twice-yearly parent conferences, where they review the goals developed for their child and discuss the child’s progress with Greystone Children’s Center staff. For more information, call 914-576-7280.

Greystone Children’s Center
Continued from Page 1

support parents in their personal growth and de-

Five others were presented with Friend of Abbott House awards for their longstanding contribution of time, talent, and treasure to the people served. These included Susan Cutajar, Barbara Kammerer, Dr. Robert Rawdin, Judy Rawdin, David Wade, and Diane Wade.

The event was also the occasion of the launching of a major gift campaign, called Fifty Forward, Celebrating the Past, Securing the Future. Announced by Abbott House Board of Directors Chairman Gregory Mooney, the goal of the campaign is $1 million. It began Nov. 1 (the actual date of incorporation 50 years ago) and runs for one year.

“The evening was an historic one for Ab-

Here’s how: Chairman of the Board of Directors of Abbott House Gregory Mooney, Al Roker, Meredith Vieira, and President and CEO of Abbott House James Kaufman, LSCW-R.

“The gala celebration honored Al Roker of

Continuing its work with families, Greystone Children’s Center provides a wide variety of resources to support parents in their personal growth and development. All parents are invited to workshops about a variety of topics, including child development, parenting skills, stress management, and family concerns. Parents are encouraged to participate in the regularly-scheduled parenting and are required to attend twice-yearly parent conferences, where they review the goals developed for their child and discuss the child’s progress with Greystone Children’s Center staff. For more information, call 914-576-7280.

Greystone Children’s Center
Continued from Page 1

support parents in their personal growth and de-

Five others were presented with Friend of Abbott House awards for their longstanding contribution of time, talent, and treasure to the people served. These included Susan Cutajar, Barbara Kammerer, Dr. Robert Rawdin, Judy Rawdin, David Wade, and Diane Wade.

The event was also the occasion of the launching of a major gift campaign, called Fifty Forward, Celebrating the Past, Securing the Future. Announced by Abbott House Board of Directors Chairman Gregory Mooney, the goal of the campaign is $1 million. It began Nov. 1 (the actual date of incorporation 50 years ago) and runs for one year.

“The evening was an historic one for Ab-

Here’s how: Chairman of the Board of Directors of Abbott House Gregory Mooney, Al Roker, Meredith Vieira, and President and CEO of Abbott House James Kaufman, LSCW-R.
The City of Yonkers, in partnership with the CBC Junior Girl Scouts Troop 1814, hosted a Yonkers Green City Tree Give-Away on Oct. 26 at Trevor Park where 200 trees, made available through a National Wildlife Federation grant received by the troop, were distributed to Yonkers residents on a first-come, first-served basis.

Additionally, the city’s Parks Department planted several trees at the park.

“Yonkers has been a Tree City USA for 26 years and efforts like these continue to support the environmental health of our city and sound forestry management,” said Mayor Mike Spano. “Congratulations and thank you to the CBC Junior Girl Scouts Troop 1814 and the National Wildlife Foundation for providing this great opportunity for the residents of Yonkers.”

As part of its journey toward receiving the Girl Scout Bronze Award, Troop 1814 researched ways to counter the negative effects of tree loss on the environment, particularly in the City of Yonkers, which suffered the loss of hundreds of trees during Superstorm Sandy and subsequent severe storms.

Under the leadership of Troop Leader Irma Pereira, the Girl Scouts applied for a National Wildlife Foundation grant and was excited to learn just a few weeks later that its application was accepted, awarding 200 trees for planting in Yonkers.

The CBC Girl Scouts are determined to create an awareness of conserving and caring for our environment,” said Troop Leader Irma Pereira. “In partnering with Mayor Spano, Yonkers’ Parks Department and the Yonkers Board of Education, we are using this opportunity to assure that an idea, and the courage to try and make a difference, can help all.”

In addition to offering 200 trees, the Green City Tree Give-Away program offered an educational component for residents attending the event who participated in a presentation on proper ways to plant, maintain and care for trees.