In Yonkers, the holiday season is a time to give back to others – if you have the ability to do so.

Every year, Rising Media Group like to surprise one or more of our readers with a gift card to help make the holidays a little brighter. We ask our readers to send us an annual letter, and tell us about someone who may have fallen on tough times or who deserves a visit from Santa. Your letter will be published, if chosen, but the names of all involved will be protected.

Send your ideas to trinagalooa@gmail.com within the next two weeks.

Westchester Celebrates The Holiday Season

Glennie, the Hudson River Museum's historic home, has been decorated for the holidays with a Victorian splendor and a tree in every room, combined with a Victorian-themed dining area created by interior designer Debra Blair.

This season, the six period rooms of Glennie—view through the museum's Gilded Age home on the National Register of Historic Places—will be decked out for the holidays in full Victorian splendor through Dec. 31. The Library, parlor, Great Hall, sitting room, dining room and the billiard room will be decorated with garland, bobbles, and trees in every room. Each room is defined by a specific color scheme—the parlor, for example, is characterized by teal, royal blue and chartreuse hues that play off the softest prisms that sit by the mantelpiece.

Conceived by designer Bob Peace, the arrangements use a combination of Victorian elements such as kissing balls, wreaths, and period toys from the collection, along with designs that blend a contemporary flair, such as a rainbow-colored tree in the Great Hall.

Now this year, the dining room in Glennie will be decorated with a traditional Victorian Christmas table setting designed by interior designer Debra Blair, whose display highlights the elaborate meals of the Gilded Age, and the dining room table will be set for a large holiday gathering. A seven-course meal—from appetizers to dessert—will be accompanied by a soup course. New Delaware oysters are being fabricated for the dining room chairs.

Complementing the holiday party atmosphere, a display of cigars and brandy will be in the library. Blair is a trustee of the Hudson River Museum and founder and principal of Debra Blair Design, which provides a full range of design services for both residential and commercial clients, including the executive offices of Donaldson, Lufkin and Jenrette; the Adelson Galleries; and the New Members Reading Room at the New York Society Library. Blair has been invited to participate in numerous charitable events and designer show houses, including the Kips Bay Designer's Show House in New York in 2002 and 2003.

In addition to these festive decorations, Darrel Scala, owner of D. Thomas Fine Miniatures, has partnered with local professional artists to create miniature holiday decor in Nebuchadnezzar Hall, a 24-room dollhouse located in the Billiard Room of Glennie. The arrangement includes a Della Robbia-inspired wreath, garland, and ivories created by Scala with Sharon Harbison and Donald Morris, which surround the front door. There is also a holiday loose underwear in the Kitchen and dining room with a choice board by Sharon Harbison, and holiday desserts—pumpkin pie by Sara Steinhek, and three gingerbread houses by Myr Burnett.

Glennie Mansion and the Hudson River Museum are ready for your holiday visit. City Council Minority Leader Michael Sabatino partnered with the Yonkers Police Benevolent Association and the Cage, lunchmen and Sergeants Association on Nov. 21 to provide Thanksgiving dinners to School 13. This is the third consecutive year of this partnership, which is sponsored by the contributions of PBA President Keith Olson and CSLA President Chris Sapienza.

Tony Silverio of ShopRite also made donations to the cause, which were accepted by Principle Hernandez, school counselor Laura Bather and the student government.

The Untermyer Gardens Conservancy is seeking the donation of a large 25-foot-tall evergreen tree, ideally from Yonkers, to be used as the centerpiece of the Grand Holiday Illumination at Untermyer Park and Gardens. Opening Night is Dec. 20 at 5:30 p.m., with 1,000 people expected to attend.

This beloved tradition has been enjoyed by thousands of people from all over the metropolitan area since 2015, so the tree will get great exposure. Covered in colored lights, it will occupy the center of the Walled Garden, where the four rivers (canals) of Paradise intersect. The conservancy will remove the tree from the donor’s property. Anyone interested in donating a tree should contact Timothy Tilghman at ttilghman@untermyergardens.org or 845-642-3688.

We knew from the beginning that they couldn't ride around for hours with daddy. Even my mother helped as we marched towards the Yonkers City Council, Sixth District. Re-elect me this year.

share my remarks with you and offer some concluding words.

To start, I would like to speak on behalf of Mayor Liam McLaughlin, who told a story about how her mother calling Bernice on a money day to complain that she had not been paid. She immediately told her to come over, which she did, with Bernice sitting next to the driver in the vehicle.

"Friends, Liam gave me the perfect opening for my words today. I was reminded of that story when I looked at the obituary for Liz מצטערת Сегодня. Liz was a wonderful Yonkers woman, and she, too, was Yonkers!"

"When I heard that Bernice passed away, I was so sad, and I was thinking about how much she loved me and my family. She was a great woman, and I will miss her."

"I knew Bernice for 40 years. We met in 1978 when the Jewish Council of Yonkers was sponsoring a YWCA screening campaign. Bernice was interested in helping Jewish adults, and I was very impressed with her efforts."
