Meet the Class of 2019 Valedictorians, Salutatorians

Yonkers Middle-High School Valedictorian Lisbon Samborska and Salutatorian Maria Kulapurshtah.

By Dan Murphy

Yonkers Rising reviews our yearly tradition of highlighting the academic excellence and achievement of high school seniors who were this year’s valedictorians and salutatorians. The group of valedicts and salus in Yonkers Public Schools were honored in a bountiful feast last week, but we will feature every valedict and salut in YPS, and from Sacred Heart H.S.

We start with Yonkers Middle-High School and Valedictorian Lisbon Samborska and Salutatorian Maria Kulapurshtah. Both completed their degrees in the competitive and challenging International Baccalaureate program.

Youth Theatre Interactions is celebrating 45 years of service to Yonkers and Westchester, and is in a tradition of teaching young adults performing art skills, by holding a fundraising gala Thursday, April 18 at the Roosevelt Ballroom in Yonkers. YTI is one of the oldest nonprofit organizations in the kind, and it has been in existence for 45 years because of the success it provide to children and their families, not only in learning about drama and dance but teaching life lessons along the way.

“I have worked over the past 45 years as a teacher and director at youth organizations,” says Alex Kulapurshtah, founder of YTI and teacher for advanced drama. “Through the joy of studying and developing skills in the performing arts, I am proud that YTI remains a place where students actively think about the world around them and give creative expression to what they see and feel.”

In keeping with the gala’s theme, “45 Years Strong,” YTI alumni from across the country will be in attendance along with music and dance performances.

Our week after State Senators Andrew Stewart-Cousins and Shelley Mayer announced that Yonkers Public Schools had received in addition to $27.5 million in State Education Aid in the state budget agreement, a second budget challenges remained in the YPS budget.

YPS Superintendent Edrin Querzado stated at a recent Board meeting that while he thanks the mayor and state delegation for the additional state funding, a $26 million budget hole re- mains in the YPS budget for the upcoming 2019-20 school year that starts in September.

“Where we started this process, I reported a $39 million budget gap,” said Querzado, who will present his budget April 24. “With the additional, dollars, and if the trustees allow us to use the current fund balance, we have a current budget gap of $26.5 million. That’s where we are at and that is what I will report on at the April board meeting.”

This year marked the third annual Hoops Against Hate, which includes the Yonkers Commission on Human Rights and the Westchester Knicks for their role in making Hoops Against Hate a reality. In addition to the basketball tournament, the program began with an introduction from Matt Orefice, Human Rights Commissioner member, and Alene Peers, current chairwoman of the Human Rights Commission. Participants were entertained by the AAA All-Stars, led by London Reign. Elected officials – including Mayor Mike Spano, County Executive Christina Johnson, City Council President Mike Haddad and Councilmembers Shanae Williams and Anthony Merante – spoke to the young people about the importance of coming together despite their differences and forming the bond of unity.

This year’s keynote speaker was basketball legend Kawhi Leonard, who played in the WNBA and scored the first points in New Liberty history. He spoke of his journey and the importance of sports bringing people closer. Hampton stayed for the tournament and provided coaching and advice throughout.

The City of Yonkers Commission on Human Rights thanked Spano, the Yonkers City Council, the Westchester Knicks for their part in this event a success. Congratulations to Sacred Heart School, the 2019 Champions!”

Yonkers On the Move Celebrates Kickoff Walk

Yonkers Mayor Mike Spano joins Brigitte Griswold of Groundwork Hudson Valley, local community partners, city officials, and students of School 13 to officially open Yonkers Greeneway Playground, located at 52 Lawrence St. Photo by Maurice Mercado.

Join Yonkers On the Move as it begins another season of better health and walking around the city.

Yonkers On the Move will host its annual kickoff ceremony for its walk season Thursday, April 30 at noon at City Hall Plaza, with Mayor Mike Spano welcoming walk participants and cutting the ceremonial ribbons. YOM is a citywide program and campaign promoting getting outdoors and choosing a healthier active lifestyle, with walking as the core activity. The ceremonial kick-off will be followed by what is called the “Kick-off” walk from City Hall Plaza to the Riverfront Library and back approximately 1 mile. The ceremony and walk is a new tradition signifying that the time is here for more outdoor activity. It is also a new opportunity, for local health and wellness-conscious businesses to band together, or “kick-off.” Participants will also learn about this year’s 2019 challenge, called YONKERS WALK 20, which consists of three walk challenge phases extending from April through October. Everyone who lives, works or walks in Yonkers can participate. It’s intergenerational, at no cost, and you or your organization can use YONKERS WALK 20 motivational tools to make walking a part of your daily routine.

Walking more and using your car less is also good for the environment.

The land area of Yonkers is approximately 20 square miles, those who record and report walking a total of 20 miles or more on a YOM Mile Card or online at www.walkyom.org during phase one, which extends through May 31, will be invited to attend the phase one recognition event (date to be determined).

In addition to motivating individuals to set personal activity goals, total walking miles reported are tabulated, and YOM is setting a goal of 27,559 citywide miles walked by all participants in one season.

The actual mile goal will be announced at the ceremonial kickoff “Kick-off” walk. RSVPs are appreciated but not required. To RSVP for more information, visit www.walkyom.org or email WRonkchemicalmove@yahoo.com.

Yonkers CSEE Emphasizes Life Lessons in Sports

By Eric Schoen

Most of you know that taxes are due April 15, but for the uninformed, they are ride-sharing apps for fast, reliable, and safe rides with the tap of a button any day or night. You just tap to request a ride, and it’s easy to pay by credit card, Venmo, or cash. In most cases, it is so simple that you can be driving in your own car or service.

How did they come about? People in places like the New York City and the other metropolitan areas put time and energy into making the rain, hail, a cab, and not knowing if you will or could find one. They wanted door-to-door service, to know the price for the ride in advance, and ride in a cab that didn’t smell like someone left their lunch in the back of the car day before. They wanted convenient drivers who would help them get into and out of the car with their packages— all things many cab drivers were not doing.

You hail an Uber or a Lyft from your iPhone. With Uber, you will make and make the car coming to pick you up, as well as the license plate number, and receive a picture of the driver and are told how long it will be for the car to arrive. With Uber, if it is 2 minutes away, you get a notice at the pick up point and passenger. The car is there. There is the car. She has to have an Uber or a Lyft ride in the nearby supermarket had, but you will give that for another day. So, in the end, all the money you are giving the car driver and how good, could a young lady get into the nearby car or driver make her? She apparently got into the wrong vehicle.

What more can you ask for? When the service that has expanded to the suburbs works, it works great. A friend of mine has used them two times and his company has been having foot trouble and has had to take this three services twice within one week from Yorkers to Manhattan. I can write a book on the stories I have heard, but I will save that for another day.

Check (Off) in Your Taxes to Fund Presidential Campaigns

As you are preparing your tax returns, you will come across a question asking if you want to designate $3 to the Presidential Election Campaign Fund.

The fund’s candidates’ dependences on large contributions from individuals and groups and places candidates on equal financial footing with the general election fund. The fund also helps pay for presidential public funding. If you want to see $3 to the fund, check the box. If you are a filing a joint return, your spouse also can have the choice.

Now, public media research is extensively used by candidates, but how long have you been in a situation where presidential election funding, we will never know. Because of the cost of public funding, most politicians don’t accept ‘public funding only shouldn’t be babysitters. If a newborn has an illness, it’s serious. What more can you ask for? When the service that has expanded to the suburbs works, it works great.

April 15, 1924: Dr. Sue Radcliff of Morristown, who was a graduate of the Homeopathic Hospital and Maternity after emergency surgery the previous day. Born in Yonkers, she had three children and graduated from the Women’s Medical College in Baltimore, then spent two years doing research at Johns Hopkins.

President of the National Organization of Women Physicians, Radcliff was one of the American female doctors who established the world’s largest quarantine hospital on Macoun’s Island, an uninhabited island near Nantucket. Devoted exclusively to providing care for homes for 10,000 refugees of war, children suffering from diseases such as smallpox and typhoid, the hospital was supported by a fund created by American women.

April 15, 1939: The old gas works of the Westchester Lighting Company on Woodlawn Avenue, between Ashburton Avenue and Babcock Place, was demolished. While the plant was in operation, many people brought their children to breathe the fumes; they believed it would cure children of whooping cough.

Tuesday, April 16

April 16, 1914: Alexander Smith Cochran visited Neponset, R.I., to inspect the Vanitie—the yacht he had built to defend the America’s Cup. Cochran, pleased with the work, and the Vanitie would be ready to launch by May 1.

April 16, 1965: Management of the Alexander Smith & Son Carpet Company announced the bomber “Yonkers Flying Carpet” would be added to our country’s fighting equipment, financial by Smith employees’ purchase of war bonds and stamps. Bond and stamp sales for the building, and he wanted to push them to the limit. For every $100 increase he made, the manager continued to bid in $100 increments above the price, much to the dismay of the Alpaca, bidding for the Republic. Goodhart had been told the GOP was willing to spend up to $75,000 for the building, and he wanted to push them to the limit. For every $100 increase he made, the Republicans continued with a bid of $25.

April 17, 1943: Because of the War Munitions Commission’s freezing of job transfers, city employees were frozen in their jobs until the war was over to prevent workers from transferring to higher paying jobs.

Friday, April 19

April 19, 1927: The Viking ship Lloyd Erickson, owned by City Councilman Shanae Williams, set out for a week for “public inspection,” and was piloted by a local pilot. Hull Terrace doing the honors. It was expected the base would be in full operation within two weeks, going flying lessons and providing ‘pre-flight accommodation.’

State Senators Shelby Mayer from Yonkers and Janis Skoobs recently introduced legislation aimed at clamping down on the “Wild West” nature of Industrial Development Agencies. Yonkers City Councilwoman Shanae Williams strongly supported the bill.

IDAs will see their stronghold on the development industry wane with the introduction of S4720, which is aimed at strengthening regulatory practices and creating provisions relating to growth.

Williams emphasized the significance of banning elected officials and requiring a union member to take a seat at the decision-making table.

“New York is a union-strong state and we must make as many jobs available to them as possible,” she said. “I’ve always sought union members because they form the voice of our working families. Having organized labor is a key to making sure we have the right people in the room when it happens.”

Folks looking for some spring fun will flock to Philipsburg Manor for Sheep-to-Shawl, kicking off Historic Hudson Valley’s event season Saturday and Sunday, April 13 and 14, from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.

In 1750, Philipsburg Manor was home to 25 undaunted individuals known to have lived and labored there. It is the country’s only living history museum that focuses on the history of northern slavery.

Visitors to this event can follow the process of textile creation – from the sheep’s back to the fi nished product – all done just like it was 300 years ago.

While strolling through the historic manor’s grounds, visitors can watch as Scottish border collies demonstrate their sheep- and duck- herding savvy, strut their stuff 18-century style and learn how they were a marker of social class.

Governor’s Island will offer a full lunch menu including Shepherd’s pie and veggie chili, the Blue Pig of Union will dish up locally-sourced, homemade ice cream, and Captain Lawrence Brewing Company will serve draft beers.

Sheep-to-Shawl kicks off the spring season for Historic Hudson Valley’s network of national historic landmarks.
