Yonkers Student Excellence: Meet Palisades Prep Val & Sal

By Dan Murphy

Yonkers Rising continues its history of introducing you to the valianteducators and valiant students from each of the nine high schools in Yonkers. We start with Palisades Prep High School, and valiant educator Yanerlis Perez DeLeon and salutatorian Jakylin Bonito. Yanerlis whose favorite subjects are calculus, English and biology, will graduate with a 98.9 grade-point average. Her favorite teacher is Alexandra Romanes in advanced placement biology. Yanerlis said that she wants to go to a college that fits with her interests and includes activities that challenge their minds, builds their strength, and their families. Social, educational, wellness, and cultural and spiritual programs are available so that seniors can stay active and healthy. The community has million-dollar views of the Hudson River, close proximity to New York City, and a 24-hour concierge. Residents enjoy a gated community with maintenance of home, the compassion of a caring team, and the fulfillment of companionship is what makes Five Star-Yonkers an exceptional senior community.

There is a lot to love at Five Star Premier Residences of Yonkers, where the senior community has million-dollar views of the Hudson River, beautiful sunsets over the mountains, and proximity to New York City, and a 24-hour concierge. Residents enjoy a community with maintenance of home, the compassion of a caring team, and the fulfillment of companionship is what makes Five Star-Yonkers an exceptional senior community.

Annual Yonkers Artists Showcase Returns to Library

Colonial History Day also marks the seconal return of the Child Development Institute at Sarah Lawrence College’s Community Adventurer Experience program, a mobile playground that encourages children to be inventive and creative by using loose recyclable parts to be shaped, molded and arranged to create whatever the imagination can conceive. The CAPE program will be taking place from 1-3 p.m. on the grounds of Philipse Manor Hall. All children must be accompanied by a guardian and all ages are encouraged to test their imagination.

Admission is free for all outdoor activities, thanks to support from the Yonkers Downtown/Waterfront Business Improvement District, the Yonkers Riverfront Library and Friends of Philipse Manor Hall.

The museum will be open for self-guided tours at the reduced cost of $5 per adult, $3 per senior and student, and free for children age 12 and younger. For more information, call Philipse Manor Hall’s public programs coordinator at (914)385-4077, ext. 102.

Philipse Manor Hall State Historic Site is located at 29 Warburton Ave. For information on the events at Philipse Manor Hall, visit http://philsemanorfriends.blogspot.com.

The City of Yonkers has more than 200 visual artists living and working in the city, who form a vibrant community by making a patchwork of creative styles of work borne from a variety of influences and experiences.

The Yonkers Artists Showcase at the Riverfront Yonkers Public Library, in the fourth-floor art gallery at 1 Larken Plaza, is an annual presentation of a select representation, describing the creative urban energy current in Yonkers.

The exhibition will run from April 3 to May 26, and there will be a special artists’ reception Sunday, April 8 from 3 to 5 p.m. The reception is open to the public and free to attend. Light refreshments will be served and there will be an accompainment of live music.

Artists selected for the exhibition include Al-fried Haywood, Alain Marx, Allen Hart, Andreas Gättert, Anke Mielke, Aruna Ferrai-ro, Barbara Segal, Blagos (Gino) Cusamo, Carol
Frank, Catherine Linton, Cecile Spritzer, Connie Fried, David Alje, David Fischer, Deborah Holcombe, Diane Mitchell and Marko Gruen; En-

Poetry, Crafts & Nature at County Nature Centers

There are a number of programs scheduled the weekend of April 7 and various weekend programs up through May 15. For more information, call 914-646-7070.

Do you have what it takes to be a farmer? Join us for hands-on learning and fun on Sunday, April 1 from 8 a.m. to 10 a.m. at Macomb Farm on Route 100 in Roaring Brook. For ages 8 and older, with an adult. The cost is $15 per person or $25 for a family of four. Pre-registration is required. 914-646-7070.

Also at Macomb on Sunday, kids and families are invited to create and explore with nature from 1 to 2 p.m. There is a fee of $15 per person for pre-registered programs.

Ed K. Radish Wildlife Sanctuary on Play-up Road in Rye will host a Volunteer Corps Workshop on Saturday, March 18 from 9 a.m. to 12 noon. The focus of this event will be to help with invasive plant removal, firewood, brush clearance and more, weather permitting. 914-646-7070.

The Fourth Precinct Community Council will hold their meeting this Thursday, April 6, at 7 p.m. in the Fourth Police Precinct, 53 Shonnard Parkway in Yonkers. Captain Cirocchi, precinct commander, and his staff will address matters of concern. Everyone is welcome to attend.

The program is free to attend and volunteers will be on hand to assist. All children must be accompanied by a guardian.

The Children’s Play Program is supported by various fees and donations, and we need your help to continue this important work.

The Office of Human Rights within the City of Yonkers has moved from its previous location on Nepperhan Avenue to the fourth floor of the Riverfront Library at Lakeside Plaza. The office is open Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m., and Wednesday from 1 to 5 p.m.

The Children’s Play Program continues to succeed with a successful career in the field of equal employment opportunities.

The challenge also features additional re- sources for residents to take their commitment of conservation even further. From regional wa ter and energy resource issues to cost-saving tips at home.

In addition, the city launched in “Respect Yonkers” anti-littering campaign and its envi ronmentally friendly purchasing policy that requires the city to purchase recycled content paper, recycled content office supplies, and products that use up to 70% of water.

Last year, residents from more than 4,100 homes and businesses in Yonkers, N.Y., have reduced their water usage, because every drop counts.”

"Credence our residents be ‘water wise’ and challenge them to be more mindful of their water usage, because every drop counts," said Spano. The challenge reminds us of informative and easy-to-do online pledges to our water conservation. Participating residents will be entered into drawings for hundreds of more prizes.

The annual Wyland National Mayor’s Challenge for Water Conservation is an effort to galvanize cities in all 50 U.S. states pledged to reduce their water use by 1% over the next year, a challenge that Yonkers has accepted. Cities in the competition are entered into drawings for hundreds of eco-friendly prizes, including home improvements and alternative energy equipment, and a grand prize Toyota Prius.

The city’s anti-littering campaign, which takes place April 1 from 3 to 5 p.m., is a nonprofit community service campaign to see which leaders can best inspire their residents to create a series of informative and entertaining videos about the way litter affects our environment. The challenge goes beyond recent trash issues and looks at the ways our use will affect the future of our communities – from how we grow food to reducing polluted waters.

To participate, residents may enter the challenge at www.CommittoGreen.org. Yonkers residents will then make a series of online pledges to conserve water on behalf of Yonkers. Cities compete in the following population categories: 5,000 to 29,999 residents, 30,000 to 99,999 residents, 100,000 to 250,000 residents, 250,000 to 500,000, and 500,000 plus residents.

Citizens with the highest percentage of residents participating in their population category are entered into drawings for hundreds of eco-friendly prizes, including home improvements and alternative energy equipment, and a grand prize Toyota Prius.

As Tax Day Approaches, Get Your Benefit Statement Online
by Elias Hayes
Social Security District Manager, Yonkers
Whether you are a first-time filer or a seasoned pro, getting ready for Tax Day is a journey, putting you in control of your finances and future. With this in mind, we have made it easy to access your benefit statement online, with one step or two, and become more informed. Now you can instantly print or download your benefit statement anytime you want – that’s right, any time you want it.

The Benefit Statement, also known as the SSA-1099 or SSA-1042S, is a tax form that provides your Social Security benefits each year in January to people who receive Social Security benefits. It is the same Social Security benefit statement you might receive by mail from Social Security in the previous year so you know how much Social Security income to report to the IRS at tax time. If you use the online statement, you can print or download it to your computer.

The SSA-1042S is for a noncitizen who is not automatically qualified for Social Security benefit information. The SSA-1042S helps to verify that the noncitizen is entitled to Social Security benefits, to verify immigration status, and to help noncitizens manage their Social Security benefits.

If you currently live in the U.S. and you need a replacement form SSA-1099 or SSA-1042S, you can request a replacement form with a “my Social Security” account at www.socialsecurity.gov/myaccount. You can also request replacement form SSA-1042S or SSA-1099 if you don’t have a “my Social Security” account, creating a new account is easy to do and usually takes less than 15 minutes.

The workshop was developed by Stanford University’s Patent Education Center and is taught in 25 states and 25 countries. The volun- teers will follow the model teaching program from Stanford and also receive additional training to lead classes to help seniors gain insights into their health-related behavior.

“When seniors take care of their health, their quality of life vastly improves,” said Department of Veteran’s Affairs, a trusted partner in health care.

If you are a veteran, the Yonkers Riverfront Library has you covered with free “Stop and Think” health booklets. These booklets are available in English and Spanish.

On May 2 and May 9, at 6 p.m., instructor Deborah Roth will offer two classes on how to dance Salsa, merengue, hip hop and other dance forms. The workshops are free and open to the public. The workshops take place at community-based locations in Westchester, such as houses of worship, senior centers, libraries and housing developments. Volunteers must commit to all four days of training and certification.

All volunteers are asked to bring a reusable mug to help reduce plastic waste. The training is free, but prospective volunteers must commit to at least four days of training. More information and applications can be found by visiting www.wheelsforwishes.org.

The SPCA Westchester and the Mount Vernon Police are asking for any information leading to the arrest of the persons or persons associated with the death of a dog in the area.

On March 24, Mount Vernon Police and the Mt. Vernon Animal Control received an anonymous call about the discovery of a female dog in the area. The dog was found dead and wrapped in a plastic bag on a street in the area. The dog was a small, white, short-haired dog. The incident occurred in the early morning hours of March 24.

The SPCA Westchester and the Mount Vernon Police are working closely to determine the cause of death and to identify the persons responsible.

If you have any information regarding this incident, please contact the SPCA Westchester at 914-471-7973 or the Mount Vernon Police at 914-699-1000.
The Million-Dollar Foreclosure

As the official weekly newspaper for the City of Yonkers, Yonkers Rising also reports on the notices of sale, foreclosure, or foreclosures, for private property owners. These notices contain the names of property tax owners or heirs given up on paying their mortgage or taxes. The property below captured our interest and information because of the large opening price of $905,768.32.

The home, located at 117 Wyndcliff Road, in a Colonial Heights neighborhood on a quiet street on top of a hill, is not your usual foreclosed property. The property is spacious, and it has been lived in and cared for by one family, which makes it a unique opportunity for a new owner to purchase a home with a rich history.

Last Chance to See ‘Lend Me a Tenor’

The Park Hill Players will present (in full performance) of Ken Ludwig’s “Lend Me a Tenor” on Sunday, April 9 at 7:30 p.m., at the Racquet Club on Van Cortlandt Park Avenue, at the corner of Lakeville Drive.

Back by popular demand, the Park Hill Players return to the Racquet Club after 35 years with this hysterical farce. There will have the audience rolling in the aisles from the opening scene to the hilarious ending. Audience members only. Seats are $10 and open to the public. You do not need to be a member of the Park Hill Racquet Club to attend.

Production of “Lend Me a Tenor” was made possible thanks to funding from the New York State Council on the Arts, administered by the Westchester County Arts Council, and the Office of Cultural Affairs, City of Yonkers.

The show is a must-see production that should not be missed. A hilarious comedy with a touch of romance, it features a talented cast that delivers an extraordinary performance.

Yonkers Vietnam veterans with Mayor Mike Spano, City Council President Liam McLaughlin, and other members of the City Council.

Yonkers Director of Veterans Affairs Lou Navarro, also a Vietnam veteran, said, “Never again will one generation of American veteran abandon another.”

The City of Yonkers has renamed several streets across the city in memory of veterans who have been lost.

It was on March 29, 1973 when combat and support units withdrew from South Vietnam. Involving five U.S. presidents and 500,000 military personnel, the war left an indelible mark on the American psyche.

Returning veterans did not always receive respective welcomes upon their return to American soil. National Vietnam War Veterans Day recognizes the military service of these men and women who answered the call to serve their country.

Editor’s note: Several years ago, we featured Korean War veterans who died in combat defending our nation. At the end of our coverage, we printed a special newspaper with all of their stories for friends, fellow veterans and family members to remember them by. That effort was paid for through generous contributions and volunteer efforts. We are interested in doing the same for Yonkers Vietnam veterans who never made it home, but need your help. Please contact us at dmurphy@risingmediagroup.com if you can help make this happen.
