Yonkers Arts Weekend Has Arrived!

YFT Endorsement From Puleo is Worthless

Reform Slate Running for All the Right Reasons

By Dan Murphy

The recent endorsement by outgoing Yonkers Federation of Teachers President Pat Puleo of Democratic City Council Candidate Mike Khader is viewed by many as a tarnished endorsement that reminds voters of the incident last year that resulted in calls for Puleo to resign or be fired from her leadership post.

Puleo’s departure as YFT president at the end of the school year came as a result of an undercover video published by ProjectVeritas last year that showed Veritas founder James O'Keefe posting as a YFT activist with the intention of unearthing corruption within the union. Puleo’s comments, calling for his resignation, or demanding she be terminated.

Puleo’s decision to step down, YFT election to be held May 16. The opposition to Puleo is so great that a Reform Slate of candidates has been put together a strong, capable campaign to maintain control of the union from NYSUT.

With Puleo stepping down, a Reform Slate of candidates has stepped forward to run against Puleo’s slate. This Reform Slate of candidates has been put together a strong, capable campaign to control the union from NYSUT.

Puleo was able to ride out the storm and even secured a job with the parent union of the YFT, the New York State United Teachers, where she will go after the school year when her term ends.

Congrats to the Saunders girls’ softball team on winning its fifth Yonkers City Softball Tournament in a row. Congrats also to coach J.R. Volpe, one of Westchester’s finest softball coaches, who has led the Lady Blue Devils to all five titles. He is the son of Gorton High School basketball legend John Volpe.

Awarded “Most Valuable Player” of the tournament was Saunders pitcher Cassidy Montes, who won both games by tossing shutouts. On April 13, Saunders defeated Roosevelt H.S. 21-0; and on April 17, the team beat Yonkers H.S. 23-0. In the championship game, Cassidy struck out 12 batters while allowing only three hits over five innings of work.

Kaitlyn Antonelli and Anne Marie Rivera each drove in three runs and scored three runs for Saunders.

The following players received praises of distinction from Coach Volpe: Emily Varegas, Marlene Tavarez, Kelly Rojas, Stephanie Romero, Gianna Zanchelli and Stefanie Vega. (They all scored two runs in the game.)

Good luck to the team for the rest of the 2017 season and the sectional playoffs!

An estimated 200 people were at the season opening of the Science Barge, one of the city’s environmental, eco-friendly wonders, which re-opened during a ceremony last week.

Among the hands-on science and nature activities were several oyster stations, where visitors learned about the importance of oysters as filter feeders, helping to clean the river water and re-establishing ecosystems. The Barge greenhouse featured wildlife, as well, with animals from the Greenburgh Nature Center and Sharon, The Bug Lady. Visitors were also able to learn about the effects of climate change at seven new exhibits aboard the Science Barge.

Why Not Run For Public Office?

Yonkers Rotary organized its 22nd annual pancake breakfast on April 23, raising more than $5,000 for scholarships for Yonkers high-schoolers going into college and for community service grants. Hosted by St. John’s Riverside Hospital, the breakfast turned out to be one of the most successful fundraisers for the club, raising more than $11,000.

For the first time, a 10-page color journal commemorating the event and recognized the sponsors, including the club’s media partner – Yonkers Rising.

The breakfast was attended by club members and a cross-section of the community. Addressing the gathering were Rotary District Governor Lori Hugelmeyer, State Sen. George Latimer, Assemblymember Shelley Mayer, County Legislator Ken Dolinsky, Yonkers City Court Judge the Hon. Mary Anne Souto-Adey, and Yonkers City Council Sixth District candidates Anthony Merante and Mahbub Ahmad, Yonkers Rotary president; and Irene O’Donnell, executive director of development at the hospital.

Mr. Motozumi

Although the event was not without its challenges, with some groups not being able to attend due to travel restrictions, the club was able to cover some of the costs associated with hosting the event. The club’s media partner – Yonkers Rising – sponsored the event and recognized the club as one of the best and longest-running club in the world.

The event was a great success, with over 1,500 people in attendance, raising more than $5,000 for scholarships for Yonkers high-schoolers going into college and for community service grants. The club is now looking forward to its next event, which will be held on May 15, 2017.

Holocaust Remembrance Day, Yom HaHolokost, is annually observed on the day commemorating the Holocaust. The Holocaust refers to the mass murder of about six million Jews and millions of others by the Nazi regime during World War II. The term "Holocaust" is derived from the Greek words "holos" (meaning "entire" or "whole") and "katastrophe" (meaning "destruction" or "catastrophe"). The Holocaust is considered one of the most significant events in human history, and it has had a profound impact on the lives of Jews and non-Jews around the world.

We at the Library of the PBC-Jews remember the six million Jews who perished in the Holocaust and their families, and we honor the survivors of the Shoah. We commit to learning from the past to prevent such atrocities from happening again. We will continue to educate ourselves and others about the Holocaust, its causes, its consequences, and its lessons. We will strive to create a world where such horrors never happen again.

Yom HaHolokost is observed on the 27th of Adar, the 27th day of the Hebrew month of Adar, which falls between the beginning of February and the end of March in the Gregorian calendar. The day commemorates the liberation of the Auschwitz-Birkenau concentration camp and the liberation of other death camps by Soviet troops on January 27, 1945. This day serves as a reminder of the atrocities committed during the Holocaust and as an opportunity to reflect on the importance of remembering and learning from the past.

Yom HaHolokost is observed in many countries around the world, and it is a day of mourning and reflection. In Israel, it is a national holiday, and schools and government offices are closed. In other countries, Yom HaHolokost is observed as a day of remembrance, and special events are held to honor the memory of those who perished in the Holocaust.

We are dedicated to promoting tolerance, understanding, and respect for all peoples and cultures. We believe that education and dialogue are essential to preventing such atrocities from happening again. We will continue to work towards a future where human beings are treated with dignity and respect, and where all individuals are protected from harm and violence.

Hand the girls and boys who are the future leaders of the city.

This year’s Master of Ceremonies was Steve Sansone, Parks and Recreation deputy commissioner, who did a great job.

A special award of appreciation was given to longtime PAL board member Joan Dronzek for her service and volunteerism. Yonkers Rising sponsored the congeniality awards for the finalists.

The 10 finalists spent a week of rehearsals and preparation, getting ready to show how they learned to speak in public and gain confidence in interviews and answering questions — and all before a large audience of friends and family in the City Council chambers.

Posters are selected by their peers as the winners. Then the winners were announced...
