Lincoln H.S. Boys’ B-Ball
Team Holds Clothing Drive

There was more to this summer for the Lincoln High School boys’ varsity basketball players than dribbling, shooting, and summer league games. As part of the team’s annual community service project, which started as a modest clothing collection near the end of the school year turned into a full-fledged clothing drive and a collaboration with a prominent international collegiate fraternal organization and a local grassroots 501(c)3 organization receiving the donations.

Head coach Blair Minyard and his players partnered with the brothers of Alpha Phi Alpha fraternity, Inc., to collect more than 300 pounds of used clothing during the months of June and July. On Aug. 8, the team and several members of the fraternity gathered at Lincoln H.S. with the clothes and handed them over to Life Progressive Services Group of Mount Vernon.

Life Progressive Services Group is “an organization designed to facilitate the transition of formerly incarcerated men and women back into the community through advocacy, education and resource provision,” according to Ken Bright, the group’s founder and president. While the organization receives support from Volunteer New York and the United Way, the most meaningful support comes from the generosity of Westchester Alphas (the Eta Zeta chapter of the fraternity) and the Eta Zeta chapter of Alpha Phi Alpha, which has its existence, its brotherhood has come to in¬clude many prominent members of American history, including Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., Supreme Court Justice Thurgood Marshall, actor and political activist Paul Robeson, writer and historian W.E.B. DuBois, and Olympian Jesse Owens.

And this is where the young men of Lincoln and the Westchester Alphas (the Eta Zeta Lambda chapter of Alpha Phi Alpha) felt their efforts should be directed. “We are truly grateful to everyone who participated,” said Bright, as he helped the players load the clothes into the van. But Bright wasn’t the only one to feel a sense of gratitude on this day. Everyone recognized the value of their efforts.

“This was a wonderful community service opportunity where these young men could participate in the very important, yet virtually invisible role of societal re-entry for an underserved segment of our population,” shared fraternity chapter Vice President Ronald Morris, retired math department chairman from New Rochelle High School.

For the players, the experience of this clothing drive had multiple effects. Not only did they learn the value of giving to those in need, but when they got to meet the brothers of the fraternity, they had the opportunity to share time with African-American men who personify the history, including Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., Supreme Court Justice Thurgood Marshall, actor and political activist Paul Robeson, writer and historian W.E.B. DuBois, and Olympian Jesse Owens. The evening sail was sold out and gave participants a grand view of the ever-changing Yonkers waterfront. Also sailing by Yonkers on the Hudson on Tuesday was the Sloop Clearwater, America’s environmental flagship founded by Pete Seeger.

This year, YoNkerS On the Move is gearing up with September En- hanced Recognition and Move and Grow events, which are open to successful challenge participants and now—thanks to a Yonkers Ro- ury Challenge grant—to those who want to sample what the Yonkers On the Move initiative and program can do for them. While walking continues to be the core ac- tivity, YoM is planning three insertions: bikers, hikers, runners, racquet sport enthusiasts, swimmers, and snorke. "Zumba" dance participants who are otherwise "moving it" to contribute their miles. You can do so by walking miles or more in one of the above seven ways. An Activity Conversion to bikeMain has been made available in the YoM website Sept. 1. Use it for more information, visit www.yonkersonthemove.com or e-mail nw4yonkersonthemove@yahoo.com.

YoM is sponsored by the Community Planning Council Yorkers in partnership with the City of Yorkers.

Dear Editor:

Great piece about John Totten last week. FYI: Back in the late-to-mid-70s, a teenage punk from his family was arrested on Lockwood Avenue for disorderly conduct or some-thing similar.

The family payback to the neighborhood was off our shores.

Meet Cola

The Yonkers Animal Shelter has many pens available for adoptable animals. Cola is a large Brindle mixed breed bully born between 4 and 5 years of age and weighs 82 pounds. He loves tennis balls and would play for hours, but does not want to be the only pet. He is great with dogs and the shelter tells us he gets along well with OK, with another dog when introduced properly. Cola needs a home.

Meet famous magician and Yonkers resident Harry Kellar, seated, with Harry Houdini, the most famous magician of all time. Kellar left his home in Ludlow to begin a national tour of the U.S. Known as the “dean of American magic,” Kellar performed at the White House for President Theodore Roosevelt and his wife and at the London Palladium in 1899. By the end of his career, Kellar befriended and worked with fellow magicians including his famous rival, Houdini.

Vaccine Clinics Planned

The Westchester County Department of Health is setting up appointments for these free back-to-school vaccine clinics September, to ensure that all students have the vaccines they need for school. We encourage all parents to arrange a vaccine visit with their child’s health care provider if they haven’t already, so that their children are up-to-date on their vaccines in time for the new school year,” said Health Commissioner Dr. Shawn A. Martin. “Families with no insurance, Child-Health Plus or Medicaid should call the county health department to schedule an appointment for free vaccines.”

Regulations for school admission require: students must provide current, up-to-date immunization records, and must result in children not being allowed to start or continue in school if immunizations are not current. Ask your health care provider which vaccines your children need.

Health care providers available through the health department can help families and individuals sign up for the health insurance they need. Those without a regular doctor can learn where to go for ongoing primary care. For more information, call 914-995-6136.

In addition to these special clinics, the Westchester County Department of Health provides free immunizations by appointment in its White Plains and Yonkers clinics to children and students of all ages, who are uninsured or whose insurance doesn’t cover vaccines. Vaccine visits can be scheduled on the first and third Fridays in White Plains, or on the second and fourth Fridays in Yonkers, from 8:30 a.m. to 3 p.m. The health department clinics are located at 20 S. Broadway, Yonkers, and at 134 Corte St., White Plains.

Burke Rehabilitation Hospital’s OMO Honored

Dr. Myung-O Park

In honor of those whose lives were lost or forever changed by the terrorist attacks Sept. 11, 2001, the Burke Rehabilitation Hospital will continue its #911Day event with a special focus on those who volunteer their time every day to do good in the face of tragedy. He empathized with a lesson he learned from his mother: “Look for the helpers. You will always find people who are helping.”

This year’s #911Day event has a special focus on volunteers that help others in紧急情况下, or who volunteer their time every day to do good in the face of tragedy. They are the unsung heroes of our community. Burke is proud of Dr. Myung-O Park for being named to this special group of volunteers.

Volunteer opportunities at the Westchester County Center on Sunday, Sept. 9, include:

- Create invitation cards for deployed service members
- Build blocks for children with autism
- Create therapy pillows for people with spinal cord injuries
- Recycle old T-shirts to create dog toys for shelter dogs in support of SPCA of Westchester
- pack peanut butter and jelly sandwiches for local shelters with Westside of Westchester
- * Donate blood (for ages 16 and older)

Correction

One of our readers pointed out a factual error in a story published in last week’s issue of Yonkers Rising. We apologize to the late Dr. William Waterhouse, Democratic candidate for the 23rd Congressional District. Dr. Waterhouse was not the first person of color to be elected to state office in New York, as was report-

For 31 years, 20 of those years in Yonkers Human Rights work, and 15 years with the Yonkers Community Action Program, Ms. Dickerson is recognized as the “Mother of the Community.”

A southerner, Ms. Dickerson has lived in Yonkers for over 7 years and has become a dynamic, active citizen. She is a member of the Yonkers Women’s Political Caucus and was elected to the Seminary in religious and academic affairs. She has been a member of the Concerned Citizens for Downtown Housing and began a slide show that she presented all over Westchester that showed the injustices of welfare recipients. She started a newsletter for welfare losers and was instrumental in forming the Westchester Women’s Political Board and Causa Pro Deo Workshop in Yonkers.

Dickerson served on many different advisory boards, including Yonkers Rising Media Group. She presently chairs the Yonkers County Political Action Committee.

Cuomo. It is a challenge to a very powerful and well-organized governor who was instrumental in forming the Welfare advisory board. Her mission was to document the inequities of welfare recipients.

Among the Yonkers experiences the children enjoyed were visits to Beczak Environmental Education Center at the Hudson River Museum, the outdoor Museum at the Hudson River Museum, and to the JFK Marina, and Zumba, yoga and hip-hop dance classes. At the end of the year, the clothing drive started as a small endeavor. She was grateful they are to have received assistance for the children, but also for their parents,” she said.

She organized the street corner in honor of Nannie Dickerson, the Mother of the Community.

Philipsburg Manor To Host CORNucopia

CORNucopia, a sweet summer event, returns to Philipsburg Manor in Sleepy Hollow this Labor Day weekend. Celebrate a season of bounty with crafts, live music and tasty treats. Saturday through Monday, Sept. 1 to 3, from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. each day. The event is produced by Historic Hudson Valley, the non-profit education organization that owns and operates Philipsburg Manor.

Kids can get hands-on with activities like crafting cornhusk brooms, making their own apple dolls, and designing scarecrows. They can race to the finish in the child-sized “mini maize maze” and corn-shucking contest. Plus, they can test their skills in the free-play area with a variety of corn-themed games.

Live music from the acclaimed string band The Ebony Hillbillies will get toes tapping throughout the day. Watch as jugglers perform a-maize-ing feats with ears of corn, work up an appetite during cooking demonstrations, and take a guided farm walk to see every step of the harvesting process from grain to grinding.

Food selections available for purchase include fresh roasted corn, veggie corn burgers, corn tortilla casserole, kettle corn, kettle corn and popcorn, plus draft beers and draft root beer from Captain Lawrence Brewery. Blue Pig of Croton-on-Hudson will feature fresh corn ice cream.

Online tickets sold in advance are $16 for adults, $12 for seniors, $8 for children age 3 to 17, and free for children younger than 3 and for Historic Hudson Valley members. Tickets are available at www.hudsonvalley.org. Tickets are $2 more when purchased onsite.

Celebrate Rosh Hashanah With Greystone & LimeBike

Members of the Greystone Jewish Center in Yonkers and Rabbi Mendy Hurwitz recently hosted a bicycle riding event outside of the synagogue, as members of Chabad Yonkers took to the street to spread the word that the Jewish New Year, Rosh Hashanah, is coming right around the corner.

Like LimeBike, which welcomes everyone to come and explore Yonkers on their bicycles, the Jewish community of Yonkers welcomes everyone to come and celebrate the Jewish New Year.

Rosh Hashanah begins Sunday, Sept. 9 at 6:57 p.m. There will be services at 9 a.m. and 7:50 p.m. Monday and Tuesday, Sept. 10 and 11. Yom Kippur services are Wednesday, Sept. 19 at 6:13 p.m.

Members of Chabad Yonkers hope to see you at the Synagogue, located at the Greystone Jewish Center, 600 N. Broadway. For more information, call 718-679-3614 or visit jewishyoonkers.com.
