Yonkers Chamber Women Collect PJs & Books for Kids

Women in Business-Yonkers Chamber of Commerce members with Pajama Program Executive Director Genevieve Piturro, and donated PJs.

Once again, the Women in Business Committee of the Yonkers Chamber of Commerce spearheaded the Pajama Program and New Book Drive for the City of Yonkers.

The Pajama Program provides new pajamas and new books to children in need, many of whom are waiting and hoping to be adopted. Thousands of the children served live in foster care, group homes and shelters, and are shuffled often between temporary living facilities. Many of them have been abused or abandoned, and have never enjoyed the simple comfort of having a mother or father tuck them in at bedtime.

So many children are without warm bedtime clothing and education, so we developed a creative program to provide some of both," said founder and Executive Director Genevieve Piturro, who initiated the project.

The Chamber thanked all of the businesses and not-for-profits that once again participated in making this another successful campaign.

Evergreen Sought for Grand Holiday Illumination

The Untermyer Gardens Conservancy is requesting a donation of a suitable evergreen tree to be the focal point of the Grand Holiday Illumination at Untermyer Gardens in Yonkers. Ideally, it would be about 25 feet tall.

Ideally, it would be about 25 feet tall. This beloved tradition has been enjoyed by thousands of people from all over the metropolitan area since 1995, so the tree will get much exposure. Coveted in colored lights, it will occupy the center of the Walled Garden, where the four rivers (symbol of Paradise) intersect.

The Parks Department will cut it down and remove it from the site. Anyone who is interested in donating a tree should contact Timothy Tepfer at ttepfer@untermyergardens.org or 845-642-5668.

Enjoy a menorah-making workshop at Home Depot.

Chabad of Yonkers is trying to reach out to each precious soul and ignite their spark and make them feel the warmth of Judaism. The holiday of Chanukah is especially suited to accomplish this task, of spreading the light and joy of the miracle to all.

Chabad of Yonkers takes that seriously and with joy! With numerous Chanukah events planned for the public, it is trying to spread the light of Chanukah to all corners of Yonkers. A pre-Chanukah menorah-building workshop at the Yonkers Home Depot had more than 250 attendees. Last year, children, with the help of adults, were able to build their own menorahs to use during Chanukah, thereby making the miracle of lighting the menorah more personal and exciting.

This year’s program is scheduled Nov. 18 from 2 to 4 p.m. at the Home Depot in Yonkers. The first night of Chanukah is Sunday, Dec. 2. There will be a special menorah-lighting at 4 p.m. at Ridge Hill. The menorah will be made out of cans, as part of a food drive, to get the whole community involved. Once the menorah is built and lit, the cans will be brought to a local food bank to be distributed to those in need.

Both young and old are invited to partake in this special event. On Monday, Dec. 3, there will be a menorah lighting at the Cross County Shopping center, featuring live music and hot coco and donuts. Last year it was frigid, but the event warmed both body and soul.

On Tuesday, Dec. 4, there will be a grand menorah parade. Last year it was led by a white stretch limo with a “Happy Chanukah” sign and a menorah on top, donated by Top Class Limousine Service. With a police escort, the Chabad lit up Yonkers with a parade of menorahs and music, ending with a pizza party at Via Venti on Filet Distillery in Yonkers.

And on Sunday, Dec. 9, there will be a grand Chanukah party at Chabad of Yonkers, 600 N. Broadway, from 2 to 6 p.m., followed by a menorah lighting at 6:30 p.m. at Untermyer Park.

I have been thinking a lot about what happened in a shooting in Pittsburgh. So many lives lost for no reason. And it seems like no matter how much we do, shooting occurs. It is an epidemic, and there is not much we can do about it.

At the synagogue in Pittsburgh they had three congregations praying together in different parts of the building. The reason for this is that when membership numbers grow down, it is impor- tant for some congregations to have institutions of other faiths to affirm the mean- ingfulness and orthodoxy of a building. Shared spaces is the best way to go.

Why is it so hard to get the people on the first floor to want to watch over, in this case, a big building with people all over it? And can one person with a gun stop a mass shooting occurring, whether it be in a synagogue, church, school or place of busi- ness?

I’m not knowledgeable about guns, but these shootings are far too common. Gun control can stop many of these very cheaply. A person going to Las Vegas to shoot up a mass shooting is not one of the part of the building and the man and lady with the gun are going to shoot him.

Can synagogues, or for that matter any reli- gious institutions, keep their doors open to ev- eryone without impediment in this day and age? Should people entering the building have to go through metal detectors and be on hand and scared before they are allowed in?

There are times when I am sitting in Starbucks or outer shopping and I see someone who looks a bit off and wonder what that individual’s next step is going to be. And I wonder what I should do.

It is time to purchase a gun for my safety? That’s the question I ask myself all the time. Would I really pull it out to stop a shooter? I cer- tainly would need training before I would actually trust myself with a gun. Law enforcement receive many hours of training before they are assigned guns. The average person with a gun doesn’t re- ceive this kind of training.

We constantly hear about gun control and safety. Congress needs to pass laws to make Americans safer. I wish it was that simple. Who are we kidding? It’s a bad person trying to get their hands on a gun, they will. And all the laws and legislation versus in Washington. Albany or Yon- kers are not going to stop them from hurting other- wise. It’s too late now, so why keep trying, but they are not the panacea many think they will be.

So, what should we do? What should we do. If you or someone you, something. Of course, the authorities (if you think someone has the potential to do harm).

Don’t keep your eyes glued to the television news all the time you are not my city. However, you have 500 channels on the television. There has got to be something out there for you to watch. Pet the Game Show Network or Buzz or to view old TV shows in black and white. Put Sinatra or Tony Bennet on or listen to music that makes you feel good.

We have to take our minds off what’s going on in our own lives. Our elected officials pass laws and make promises and promises to tell us they have solved the problem and the next shooting occurs. Sadly, there is not much you can do when a person pulls out a shotgun loaded with bal- lers in a country-western night at the local college bar.

The only thing we can do is keep those who lost their lives or in our thoughts and prayers. And pray that it’s never happen in a higher note.

Readers have been emailing me about the trash cans that have been taken off the streets of Yonkers recently. I first saw this on the London Tube about 10 years ago when I grabbed a container on the street and no one moved. They put the trash and bag it came in. So I carried it off the train and put it in an above-ground receptacle.

“City says these massacres can be been- dled to New York City and, in par- ticular, Long Island City in getting Amazon to move here. Former New York state Senator Eric Adams is among those now claiming that New York did not get the new Amazon headquar- ters, someplace else in the country would have gotten it.”

We all know that the city got Amazon and we won on a local campaign issue. We won on a local campaign issue. We won on a local campaign issue.

Meet Phoebe

The Yonkers Animal Shelter has many pets available for adoption. Phoebe is a 4 1/2 year old cat who was adopted from the shelter when she was less than 1 year old. She is 6 pounds and has a white and orange coat. When she was adopted, she was 11 months old and has lived with her owner for seven months. She loves to play ball, and not only does she fetch the ball and bring it back, but she also turns her head and flips the ball up – it’s quite amazing to see.

Phoebe is a big girl, weighing about 70 pounds. She always wants to be part of the action. She always loves teams of all kinds and enjoys human companionship. Because of this, she would prefer not to share her family with other pets. Phoebe loves the outdoors and would make a great walking or hiking companion for an active person.

The shelter is open seven days a week, from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. For more information, email Adoption1@yonkersanimalshelter.org or call 914-968-4200.

Editors note: We continue to follow and advertise the career path of Dennis Richmond Jr., a Yonkers native who has been working for several years to raise awareness about historic Black Colleges and Universities. Richmond is now teaching at Sarah Lawrence College, and student teaching at School 30 as part of the Yonkers Public Schools Dis

This is Dennis Richmond, Jr., the 23-year-old founder and director of the YNHC Initiative. I am a student teacher at School 30 through The Art Of Teaching graduate program at Sarah Lawrence College. School 30 is a part of the Yonkers Public Schools District. I am a lifelong Yonkers resident and as such, teaching Yonkers students is important for the culture. Especially because I am a young black man. I am a student teacher with black men, which, in itself is assuring because he is amazing. His name is Mr. Curtis Gordon.

Mr. Curtis is a phenomenal educator. He also writes and illustrates children’s books and Young Adult graphic novels, offering a unique perspective as he introduces these literary tools in his classroom. His book ‘The first Boy & His Violin’ is a Coretta Scott King Honor Award winner. I am a lifelong Yonkers resident and as such, teaching Yonkers students is important for the culture. Especially because I am a young black man. I am a student teacher with black men, which, in itself is assuring because he is amazing. His name is Mr. Curtis Gordon.

One time out in this country, the majority of students in this country were slaves, slaves who were stolen from across the globe to help those men to be taught how to read and write. As time went on, this large majority gained emancipation and worked on farms. After the gaining of emancipation, this majority eventually had children and grandchildren who migrated from the south to the north. It was in the north that many black men worked factory jobs, cleaning jobs, and cooking jobs. All the while, mostly white women were teaching black boys - a phenomenon that still occurs today. It is extremely important that I become a teacher because as I can save the lives of black men, I know this situation exists today. One study shows that, African-American boys in elementary school are less likely to be suspended or expelled if they have a teacher who is black. A large majority of the black boys who are constantly suspended and up in jail and a black teacher can instill positive values, they are saving the lives of these young boys.

To be an educator of color in 2018 is to always be on edge. No matter the school, the students are always looking at you to see what you’re doing. You have to be aware of the time. You have to choose your words carefully, choose your body language carefully, and most of all, choose the way that you present yourself carefully. Most importantly, though, to be an educator of color in 2018 is to be a life savior. My experience as a student teacher in Yonkers thus far has been remarkable. One little boy who is of color brought me an apple. I am a 25-year-old student teacher and a student thought of me to bring me an apple. If that isn’t saving our black boys one child at a time, then what is it?

City Works to Help Residents Find Jobs for Holidays

This week, Mayor Mike Spano and City Councilwoman Shanae Williams joined local business leaders to announce the city’s first Seasonal Job Match. In conjunction with the City of Yonkers Workforce Development Board, Spa-no, and local partners like Greyston, the goal is to ensure as many employer/business matches as possible so all can live and work in the City of Yonkers.

Let the city help match your skills with available positions as the holiday season approaches! The city will now try to connect qualified individuals in Yonkers with as many as 15 partner companies, businesses and nonprofits who are seeking seasonal employees. Participating businesses include the Yonkers Chamber of Commerce, Greyston Bakery, South Broad-way Business Improvement District and Bounty Travel (Cross County branch).

The kickoff was held at Greyston Bakery, which has for decades provided employment, housing and social services to people who need a second opportunity or may have fallen on tough times, while at the same time creating meaning for the holidays.

For more information on the one-on-one Yonkers job match, email Shanae.Williams@yonkersny.gov or Mayor@yonkersny.gov, or call 914-377-6010 or 377-6311.

On Saturday, Nov. 17 from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m., Williams will hold a toletry drive at the YWCA, 17 S. Broadway. This event will help women, men and families in need of simple but necessary everyday items that we may all take for granted, but are in need by others.

Helping Veterans & Active Duty Military Members

By Elisa Hagen

Social Security District Manager, Yonkers

Every year on Veterans Day, we honor the people who risk their lives to protect our free-dom. Social Security honors veterans and active duty members of the military every day by giv-ing them the respect they deserve. Social Secu-rity’s disability insurance is an important part of our obligation to wounded warriors and their families.

For military members who return home with injuries, Social Security is a resource they can turn to. If you know any wounded veterans, let them know about Social Security’s Wounded Warriors website, at www.socialedge.org/woundedwarriors.

The Wounded Warriors website answers many commonly asked questions, and shares other useful information about disability ben-eﬁts, including how veterans can receive expe-dited processing of disability claims. Benefits available through Social Security are different than those from the Department of Veteran’s Affairs and require a separate application.

The expedited process is available for military service members who become disabled while on active military service on or after Oct. 1, 2001, regardless of where the disability occurs.

Even active duty military who continue to receive pay while in a hospital or on medical leave should consider applying for disability ben-eﬁts if they’re unable to work due to a disabling condition. Active duty status and receipt of military pay doesn’t necessarily prevent payment of Social Security disability beneﬁts.

Although a person can’t receive Social Security disability beneﬁts while engaging in substantial work for pay or profit, receipt of military pay-ments should never stop someone from applying for disability beneﬁts from Social Security. Social Security is proud to support veter-ans and active duty members of the military. Let those heroes know they can count on us when they need to take advantage of their earned ben-eﬁts. Our webpages are easy to share on social media and by email.
